Deputy Involved Shooting

June 25, 2020

On June 25, 2020, at about 1:00p.m., Deputies made contact with a suspicious vehicle outside of 501 West River Rd. The vehicle was discovered to have a license plate that was reported stolen.

During the course of the contact, an altercation ensued and the male occupant of the vehicle brandished a firearm. A Deputy fired at the male in the vehicle, who suffered gunshot wounds. Medical aid was immediately provided by deputies before he was taken to a local hospital. At this time, his condition is unknown.

No deputies were injured and no suspects are currently outstanding. Further information will be made available as the investigation continues.
